It seems to me a crime that we should age, these fragile times should never slip us by.
A time you never can or shall erase as friends together watch their childhood fly.

Patty,
Four years went fast.
I've only known you for 3 years but I'm glad I got to know you.
I wish you the best in life and luck in the future.

Time it was,
And what a time it was,
It was . . .
A time of innocence,
A time of confidences.
Long ago . . . it must be . . .
I have a photograph Preserve your memories;
They're all that's left you.

DEDICATION

You have given us many things not just an English class to put on file but time filled with meaning and purpose You have given us an interest in what we learn and you have shared with us the thoughts of many people You have given us your bright smile and happy outlook and times for advice or just to talk You have given us a sense of equality with both student and teacher sharing and learning from each other We dedicate this book to Ms. Virginia Detrick and we give her our thanks.

"Define infinity," my math teacher said.
"In terms of X and Y."

"Infinity, sir, is tomorrow and the next day, and we're not supposed to understand that."
(He shook his head and called on someone else.)

But what does he know of Forever—this Algebraic Professor?
His is a line of numbers, stretching for miles of blackboard and a thousand pieces of chalk.

But maybe I've misjudged him. He closes his book and rattles his papers and stands at the window awhile trying to comprehend my Infinity and the coordinates of God.

Woody–Traffic Engineer

The sea runs without end, sometimes slowly, sometimes swiftly, Eternally creating formations and images in the sand.
It is the same with life.
We live,
Some of us quickly others with caution, taking time, and the experiences create lines and impressions, and our faces,
like the sand,
show what happens in our souls.

If I could save time in a bottle
The first thing that I'd like to do Is to save every day
'Til Eternity passes away
Just to spend them with you

If I could make days last forever
If words could make wishes come true I'd save every day like a treasure and then Again, I would spend them with you

But there never seems to be enough time To do the things you want to do Once you find them
I've looked around enough to know That you're the one I want to go Through time with

If I had a box just for wishes
And dreams that would never come true
The box would be empty Except for the memory
Of how they were answered by you.

Jim Croce

we look at unknown faces ones we've seen for years and we do not know why they are unknown.
Perhaps it is the mixing of time, melted wax of a candle burning fueled by hopes and desires and not knowing what to do, or where we go.
Years from now we'll look back and see known faces, familiar because the candle smoke which grayed our small existence will turn clear. Our candle will burn with no waste, our lives will no longer be innocent, we will not have time to play at trivial games.
The day the unknown faces again seem familiar we will feel that it was all worthwhile, and we will want to be young . . .
again.

Sometime I get to thinking I've passed this road in life

The start . . . .

No where to go but straight for 100 yards

Starting blocks . . . .

Adjusted, one foot apart

Gun's up . . . .

Tension, psyche, speed

Go.

Run, keep on running, weeks of practice, hours of sore muscles, Blisters, tape, agony Run, keep on running. The finish's up ahead the line looms close Man on your right, Man on your left one extra step Run, keep on running. 15 yards left seconds tick by keep going almost done

Keep on running. 1 yard so close lunge for the line win or defeat?

Calm, now, race is over Second place, defeat but in yourself a VICTORY

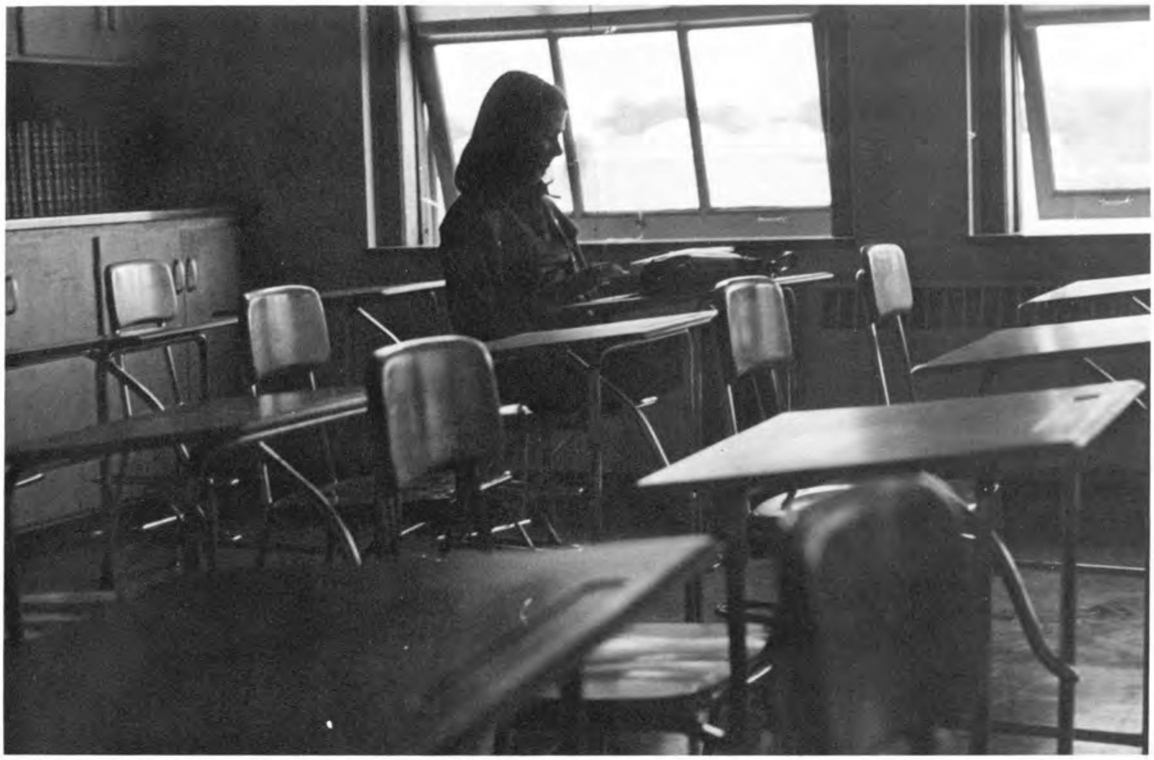
You've done your best.



Photographs and memories
Christmas cards you sent to me All that I have are these

To remember you

Memories that come at night
Take me to another time Back to a happier day
When I called you mine

But we sure had a good time When we started way back when . . .

Summer skies and lullabies Nights we couldn't say good-bye
And of all the things that we knew Not a dream survived

Photographs and memories
All the love you gave to me
Somehow it can't be true That's all I've left of you

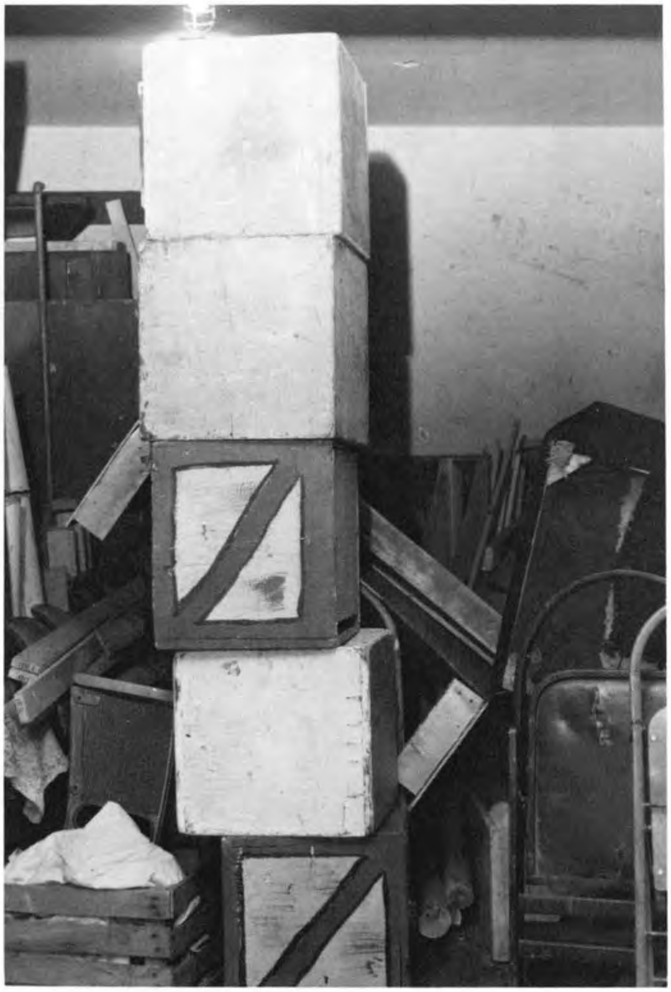
Jim Croce



Lookin' back on how it was

And the good times that I had makes the day seem rather sad So much has changed . . .

Richard Carpenter & John Bettis

Walk away knowing you may never see us again and be happy that for awhile you found a little world. And hope that someday you may come upon that world again.
For life is made of little worlds which, for the present, seem so distinct and different.
Yet one day they will melt and flow into a life, made of little episodes.
Here one ends and another begins.
